D4RTH PRESENTS BAD INTENTIONS

The first of eight releases from the forthcoming album Zero Signal

12 SEPTEMBER 2026 / RED ROOM RECORDINGS

PRE-SAVE BAD INTENTIONS

Australian electronic artist D4RTH will release “Bad Intentions” on 12 September 2026 through Red Room Recordings. The single is the first of eight releases from his forthcoming album Zero Signal, opening a new chapter following After Midnight.

D4RTH’s creative world brings together dark EDM, electropop and cinematic electronic music, with a visual identity shaped by neon cityscapes, night drives and after-hours club culture. Bad Intentions introduces the new campaign with a stark red-and-black cover: a fractured black heart illuminated from within, surrounded by smoke and reflected light.

Bad Intentions is available to pre-save now ahead of its 12 September release. Artist background, release information, artwork and official links are provided in this kit for music, nightlife and culture publications, editors and media partners worldwide.
